SPIRITUAL CONSISTENCY

In Job chapter 1:5, the book makes an interesting statement. “Thus Job did Continually.” This morning we are going to look at the subject of consistency. Why does that matter? I think it’s safe to say all of us struggle with consistency at some point. Our Faith becomes weak at times. We question if God is really there, but I would suggest to you that God isn’t fond of our inconsistency. The bible talks a lot about our inconsistencies, and it all derives from our part of not growing in the faith. We’re not putting in the effort, we are satisfied with where we are. And therefore we are babes in Christ, when we ought to be teachers. The Hebrew writer makes this statement. He puts it that way because the people listening were not paying attention. It was like we are on Sunday mornings at the end of the lesson “what’s for lunch” “is he ever going to end.” The Hebrew writer is pointing to this statement, “you’re not ready to hear what I’m about to say, you don’t understand it.” Because we have to go back to the basics. So what is it that we need to learn? Let’s look at Scripture, and I pray we see together, that God has something better for us. Not only for our benefit of the kingdom, but also those who are watching. People are watching, our faith is being tested, and we are failing. So why does consistency matter?
