HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO:

The Search for Certainty

(Psalms 14)

1. Foolishness is a proud willfulness that keeps us from seeing evidence.

- A. A very important part of the Biblical definition of foolishness is found in Psalms 14:4.
1. The foolish never learn.
 2. The Bible says a lot about how a foolish person refuses to learn or refuses to recognize that they could be wrong. (Pro. 12:15; 15:5; 18:2)
- B. The psychology of foolishness is laid out perfectly in the book of Romans. (Rom. 1:19-22)
1. Paul says there is a lot of evidence that there is a Creator when looking at creation.
 2. However, these people filtered God out. Why?
 3. They did not want to honor God. They didn't want anyone to tell them how to live.

2. Foolishness is a superficiality that makes it impossible to see our heart commitments as alternatives to believing in God.

- A. Why does the psalmist say that the fool says in his _____ that there is no God? (Ps. 14:1)
1. Because people think their inability to believe in God is intellectual or emotional.
 2. The reality is that the reason you cannot believe in God is because you have already put your _____ in something else.
- B. We need to learn to doubt our doubts. (Luke 14:28-32)
1. Very often, you'll find the things you believe in, in order to doubt God, are far less well-grounded than Christianity itself.
 2. If a person does not understand that _____ are based on faith in something else besides God, then that person is a fool.

3. We must deal with our own foolishness.

- A. A Christian is someone who became _____ of his/her foolishness.
1. There are two kinds of people in the world.
 2. Those who refuse to see their foolishness and the ones who recognize their foolishness.
- B. When we finally deal with God, the things that used to look _____ now look _____ and the things that used to look wise now look foolish. (1 Cor. 1:18, 21, 25)
1. If there is anybody here who says, "I have trouble finding God real," it is the foolishness of your own heart.
 2. Recognize it and deal with it in the way that we have talked about and salvation will come from Zion. (Psalms 14:7)
