Being Transformed

1. Looking Like Jesus.

A. In Matt. 22:34-40, an expert in the law comes to Jesus and asks, "which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

1. In answering this question, Jesus lays out what it means to be _____ in every part of our lives.

2. Jesus uses a _____ that touches all of who we are and every place that God wants to shape in our lives because of His love for us.

B. Loving the Lord calls us to surrender and dedicate ourselves to His purpose for our lives. (Rom. 12:1-2)

2. Our Hearts.

A. God's _____ transforms our hearts by changing what we love.

1. The things that we love are the things that define our priorities. (Matt. 6:19-21)

2. Surrendering our hearts to the transformation of God means letting Him determine what we love. (1 John 2:15-16)

B. Our hearts must _____ to love what God loves.

3. Our Souls.

A. God's grace transforms our souls by changing what we worship.

1. _____ defines under whose authority and reign we determine to live. (Rom. 6:16; Col. 3:17)

2. The transformation of our souls recalibrate our worship.

B. We commit ourselves to living completely in the shadow of the cross.

4. Our Minds.

- A. God's grace transforms our minds by changing how we _____.
1. Our thoughts, attitudes, perceptions, and understanding are transformed by the _____ of Christ. (Phil. 2:5; Col. 3:1-2)
2. We no longer allow worldly influences to give our lives direction or to tell us how to think.
B. We think through problems and make plans based on the priorities of Christ.

5. Our Relationships.

- A. God's transformation of our strength, what we do with our hands in love and in service, can be powerfully witnessed in our relationships with others.
B. Therefore, how we treat our neighbors becomes a reflection of how _____ would deal with that individual. (John 13:34)
