Where Is Your Heart

Who would've thought Peter would be the guy to stand before a great crowd, and give a sermon that was not seeker friendly. Days before Acts 2 Jesus was walking among them, before ascending back to heaven. And you think about the apostles standing before this crowd without Jesus, saying "alright, here we go." Let's look at the day of Pentecost and learn from Peter and the Apostles.

1. God makes bold those who once coward in the corner

- A. When you truly understand how far you've fallen away. And the only redemption is through Jesus. Cowardice is no longer an _____.
- B. The Gospel brings all of us _____. He says everyone needs him. (Rom 3:23)
- C. While we once coward in a corner, the gospel is meant to call us to _____.
- D. God is seeking each and every one of us. God tends to meet us where we are. (Acts 17:27)

2. The Gospel does not hide our need to repentance.

- A. Peter makes it known that we killed Jesus, He says you're _____.
  1. The Gospel does not play games with who we are. Peter spells it out clearly, you are guilty. (Acts 2:23, 36)
  2. This relates far more to who I am. This non-seeker sermon reminds me I am a _____ man. Jesus doesn't say anything else, but YOU NEED ME. (Acts 2:37)

B. What shall we do then? _____.

1. Anytime you open up the Gospel, you are being called to change.
2. Anytime we hear the gospel being proclaimed. Our hearts are either hardened, or softened.
3. Are you walking in newness of life? Not perfection, but _____.

Special Prayer Request

Pray for our country that God will not turn His back on us; that good, God-fearing leaders will lead us back to Him!
