Worship

1. Why We Should Worship.

- A. Main question: "Why are so many Christians _____ living out their belief in Jesus?"
1. If I truly believe in Jesus and the fact that He died for my sins, then those beliefs should make a difference.
  2. The Bible says that these beliefs should produce a different _____; a character of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. (Gal. 5:22-23)
- B. The answer: There must be a _____ between beliefs and character.
- C. If we want beliefs to actually produce character, then they have to be driven into our hearts through practices, spiritual disciplines, that engage the entire person...mind, will, and emotions. (Matt. 22:37)
1. Worship engages the _____ person and is driving our beliefs down into our lives. (John 4:24)
  2. Unless we are engaged in skillful, regular, continuous Christian worship, there will be a disconnect. (Heb. 10:24-25)
- D. This is why worship is so important. This is why we _____ worship. (Ps. 95:8-10)

2. What Is Worship?

- A. Worship: ascribing ultimate value to something and engaging your whole being as you do it. Using your entire person to ascribe value to something.
1. Worship isn't worship if it does not engage the _____ person.

Continued from Page 2

2. Look at Ps. 95:1-2. We are told sing "joyfully." That means to engage our emotions.
3. However, notice Ps. 95:6. We are told to "kneel." This is talking about the submission of will. Engaging our _____.

4. Now look at verse 7. We are told to "hear His voice..." This means that we are to listen carefully, to understand His word, and not ignore it. Engaging our _____.

B. Worship takes our beliefs and drives them down into our hearts so that it can really _____ things.
